

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

Remarks on the four Letters exhibited in Table I. as "the addition of Paragogic."

N with 3rd p. pl. preterite occurs twice, Josh. 10. 24. and Ia. 28. 12. ; with the future only once, Jer. 10. 5.

Π ending 2nd p. s. pret. belongs to the Pronoun, which omits it only five times, see [91.] analysis. Subjoined to future and imperative, the same letter implies encouragement, determination, entreaty, and exhortation. Attached to infinitives also Π occurs. Bythner himself mentions three in his Gr., end of Chap. XIII. (in Lat. it is end of XIV. there being no Chap. VIII.), although, besides אֲנִי, which is one of the three, there are used אֲנִי, אֲנִי, &c., אֲנִי, Ez. 16. verses 5. and 4. ; Gen. 40. 20. ; also אֲנִי, with prefix and suffix, Ez. 16. 52. ; but the fact is, that infinitive formations with Π, Π, and various vowels, are numerous, even to the extent that אֲנִי, Prov. 12. 25., אֲנִי, Prov. 29. 25., in consequence of being considered infinitives, although feminine, are excused for connexion with Verbs of the other sex, by Ewald, in his Sprüche Salomo's, Göttingen, 1837., pages 92. and 165.

* ends one infinitive, Ps. 113. 8., and thirteen participles, which occur Ps. 113. and 114. ; Gen. 31. 39. and 49. 11. ; Ex. 15. 6. ; Deuter. 33. 16. ; Jer. 1. 21. and 22. 16. ; Lament. 1. 1. Amended by the Masorites are Ez. 27. 3. ; Jer. 22. 23. and 51. 13. The same letter is attached to אֲנִי, אֲנִי, in the two אֲנִי (also אֲנִי, Gen. 49. 11.) it is translated by "of," but it frequently combines two substant. for proper names, as in Melchizedek, Aminadab, Elizabeth, Gabriel, Ooriel, Abimelech, Ahimelech, &c. Its capacity is less decided at the end of the two substantives, אֲנִי, Ps. 116. 1. ; אֲנִי, Lev. 26. 42. and Jer. 33. 20.

Π is found at the end of one 3rd pl. pret. Deut. 8. verse 3. and 16., but is frequent after א and ו of the future. Bythner is mistaken in ascribing it also to the imperative, with which it is not found as paragogic.

XIV.—SUBSTANTIVES AND PARTICLES WITH SUFFIXES.

[illegible]

Particles take the same suffixes, which are often translated like those of verbs, me, thee, him, &c., thus: (1.) נֶכְדָּר, opposite, becomes נֶכְדָּרְךָ, and, like סֹאם, forms נֶכְדָּרְךָ, opposite me, &c. בֹּאֵל, coram, becomes בֹּאֵלְךָ, &c.; לְמַעַן, for the sake of; לְמַעַנְךָ, for my sake, &c.; which has ע before the suffixes י, ו, ה, ב, מ. The same occurs in בְּעֵינַי, for me, &c.; but the same seven joined to חֲלִית, except; בְּחִלְךָ, on account of; לְעֵצְךָ, at the side of, over against; cause (-) to become (י), as, חֲלִיתְךָ, except I, except me, &c.; following therein, like the preceding, the analogy of Hebrew nouns in general. (2.) אָל, to, unto; and עָל, over, upon; have no singular suffix; but follow סֹאם, as, אָלַי, עָלַי, to me, on me, &c. The initial short vowels becoming long in an open syllable, the heavy suffixes cause (-) to take place instead; אֵלַיְכֶם, to you, &c.; also אֲחֵרָי adopts plural suffixes; אֲחֵרָי, after me, &c.; the first two letters having thus always (-). From the word פָּנִים, face, we derive לְפָנֶיךָ, before, and say לְפָנֶיךָ, before me, &c. בֵּין, between, begins to follow the plural by בֵּינֶיךָ, between us; and has ינִי and ינֶיךָ, between him; but ינֶיךָ, between me, &c. חֲתָרָי, under, becomes חֲתָרְךָ, and thus joins the plural, חֲתָרְךָ, under me; חֲתָרְךָ, under thee, &c.; but חֲתָרְכֶם and חֲתָרְהֶם are used alike, the 1st person singular has also חֲתָרְכִּי, and the 3rd feminine singular also plurals. (3.) אִתְּךָ, with, becomes אִתְּךָ, with me, &c.; but departs from סוּם sūm, with shee, (fem.), and אֶתְנָה, with ee. עַשִׂי, with, is treated like אֵל, but its 1st singular is עָשִׂיתִי as well as עָשִׂיתָ, and for the 2nd and 3rd plural it subjoins כֶּן, קֶם, וְךָ, see Rule 36. of Grammar, of the accusative, becomes אֵלָא or אֵלָה, for the ablative, and ל' for the dative, are declined where also בֶּן, for the ablativ, and ל' for the dative, are declined. Like this ל' is treated אֲנִי, with, only in the 3rd person plural אֲנִי is used as well as אֲנִי. The א, as, like, follows the example of ל' and אֲנִי only in the 2nd and 3rd persons plural (with the alternative of אֲנִי, &c., like you, &c.); in the 1st person plural it is confined to אֲנִי, like us; in the singular also it is אֲנִי, to which are subjoined יָ, הָ, הָ, רָ, תָ. (4.) The suffixes are translated, I, thou, &c. in אֲנִי, לְ, alone; אֲנִי, לְ, alone, &c.; with שׁ, found with three suffixes (always followed by a participle), there is (a people dispersed); אֲנִי, לְ, thou art (sending, rendering prosperous); אֲנִי, לְ, ye are (doing); also אֲנִי, לְ, where? occurs with three suffixes, אֲנִי, לְ, where art thou? אֲנִי, לְ, where is he? אֲנִי, לְ, where are they? The words for ready existence, אֲנִי, לְ, its duration, עוֹד, its negation, אֵין, are treated (nearly) alike; thus, אֲנִי, לְ, I (am) not; אֲנִי, לְ, here now I (am); exclusively in pause אֲנִי, לְ (otherwise אֲנִי, לְ); אֲנִי, לְ, my existence). אֲנִי, לְ, עוֹד, אֲנִי, לְ, עוֹד, אֲנִי, לְ, where (he is not), אֲנִי, לְ, עוֹד, אֲנִי, לְ, עוֹד, אֲנִי, לְ, עוֹד, אֲנִי, לְ, EOD.

The persons not given in these declensions can be easily collected from those contained in this Table, since (1.) the 2nd and 3rd persons of the plural simply add mā , pā , mā , pā to the plurals construct; those ending in mā take (·) under r . (2) The fem. of pāpā , &c., substitute ī for ā . (3) The suffixes ā , ī , ū , ā , ū , ā , ū , are subjoined in place of ā , ī , ū , ā , ū , &c., and since gutturals cannot have simple sheva movings, nor a compound one before any other, words like pāpā , māyā , tāyā , become pāpā , māyā , tāyā . (4) The remaining persons are obtained by removing ā from pāpā , māyā , &c., pāpā , &c., and adding ā , ī , ū , ā , ū , ā , ū . Internal changes in nouns, in consequence of declension, are few more; thus whilst חֵן of VIII. retains the first vowel throughout, חֵן, חֵן, חֵן change to חֵן, חֵן, חֵן, &c. חֵן, which belongs to II., has חֵן for חֵן, &c.; חֵן, camel, of VII., חֵן my, &c.

* Hebrew Dual formations for all objects which are double by nature remain the same for more than two, as, דְּוָיִךְ יָמֶיךָ, four feet; דְּוָיִךְ עֵינֶיךָ, seven eyes; דְּוָיִךְ זְרָעֶיךָ, six wings, &c. The word ribbān, given by Bythner, Grammar, R. 30, is used only of corners, ends of a garment or the earth, but never applied to wings, properly so called. So דְּוָיִךְ, hands of any number, reach, sides; דְּוָיִךְ הַחֲדָלִים, parts, shared, &c.
